

Eastern Illinois University
Electrical Engineering Program Position Announcement
Assistant Professor in Electrical Engineering

The Electrical Engineering Program at Eastern Illinois University invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position in Electrical Engineering starting in August 2020, subject to available funding. A Ph.D. in Electrical Engineering or a closely-related field is required, with preference to applicants who have industrial experience and/or Professional Engineer (PE) credentials. Demonstrated commitment to diversity and experience with promoting inclusive excellence is required.

Eastern Illinois University (EIU) is a comprehensive state university in a community of 20,000 in east central Illinois. Enrollment at the university is 7,000 and growing. As a primarily undergraduate teaching institution, EIU is dedicated to quality teaching in small class settings. The Electrical Engineering (EE) program is a newly established program within the Physics Department. We seek a highly-motivated candidate who can assist in the growth of the new EE program.

The successful candidate will be expected to teach upper-level undergraduate courses in electrical engineering, as well as introductory-level undergraduate courses in physics. Teaching loads may include three lecture/lab classes per semester. In addition, developing upper-level labs for the EE curriculum, mentoring undergraduate students in engineering-related research, and contributing to the ABET accreditation process are expected.

Review of applications will begin on October 1, 2019 and will continue until the position is filled. Applicants must submit a letter of application (cover letter), statement of teaching philosophy, statement of research interests, curriculum vita, graduate transcripts, and names of three references with contact information, to Interfolio at <http://apply.interfolio.com/64498>. For questions regarding this search, please contact Dr. Jie Zou, Screening Committee Chair, at jzou@eiu.edu.
